National Symbols

National Flag

The red represents the unity of the nation and the symbol of the sun and victory.

The white represents purity, cotton, the snow on the mountains and the unity of the people.

The green stands for the spiritual meaning of Islam and represents the generosity of nature of the country.

“7 Stars“ - symbol of perfection, the embodiment of happiness and the provider of virtue. “Crown“ - represents the Tajik people, the Persian word Taj means "crown".

National Emblem

The Crown at the center of the emblem is the same as the Tajik national flag, and refers to the Persian word taj, meaning crown, from which the name of the Tajik people is said to be derived.

The base of the emblem contains a representation of a book and the mountains. The emblem is flanked by cotton on one side and wheat on the other, as well a banner of the national red-white-green colors of Tajikistan is wrapped around the cotton and wheat.
