

Dr. Ross E. Butler

Dr. Butler advocates for the UN sustainable mountain development agenda since 2007. He is the Main Representative at the United Nations of the Russian Academy of Natural Sciences, an NGO in general consultative status with ECOSOC. He sponsors UVU students' visits to the UN ECOSOC forums since 2016 and in particular to the 61st-63rd sessions of the Commission on the Status of Women and the High-Level Political Forum on sustainable development of ECOSOC in July 2018.
